Getting Started with OneStream

Course Description
Getting Started with OneStream is the beginning of OneStream learning for all who are new to OneStream. In this course, learners build a foundation with the basic concepts of a OneStream application. This course introduces how to navigate an application; the common business processes OneStream supports; concepts of metadata components and dimensions, cubes, and workflows; and concludes with an overview of the powerful reporting options available within OneStream.

Learning Objectives
After completing this course, learners will be able to:
- Identify the benefits of OneStream
- Identify the basic concepts of the OneStream application
- Navigate OneStream
- Recognize the common business problems solved with OneStream
- Identify metadata components and dimensions
- Interpret cubes, workflows, and the different reporting options available in OneStream
